SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS — MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1994

[illegible]
For one who says, "I can"
[illegible]
Is dimmed by the latest plan.
For the "can't be doner's" grumble,
And damper oppose and doubt
While daring people who say "I can"
Proceed to work it out.

Oh the "can be's" clan is meager,
Its membership is small
And might few see their dreams come true
Or hear fame's trumpet call,
But it's better to be a "can be,"
And labor and dream and vie,
Than to be a "can't be doner"
Without the pluck to try

Lincoln D. Lynch, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY, AND STAFF

Mr. Harry Levine
Principal

Principal's Message

The class of 1994 will not only be fondly remembered for both academic and athletic achievements but for its personality and sense of unity with one another and with the school. Many of you are standouts but all of you are special. Remember your roots as you go into the world and work to change it to fit your needs. Walk proudly into your future for you have earned it.

School Committee: Nancy Puckett Ron Depesa, Secretary John Nolan, Chair Dr. Stephen Erickson Brian Murphy, Vice Chair

School Council: Front: Stephanie Fougere, Michelle Keaveney, Marylou Hansen, Judy Laniewski. Back: Mr. Levine, Mr. Kellett, Edward Williams, Mr. Longval.

The School Council is a result of the Massachusetts Education Reform Act, passed in June, 1993. The law says that school councils are to be composed of the following: the principal of the school (who serves as co-chairperson) teachers in the school, community members and, at the high school level, at least one student. The purpose of the school council is to give parents, teachers, community members and students more of a role in shaping the policies and programs of the school. The law gives the council responsibility in four areas: assisting the principal in adopting educational goals for the school, identifying the educational needs of students attending the school, reviewing the school building's annual budget and formulating a school improvement plan.

CLASS WILL

Kevin Johnson- To Mr. Kellett I leave his grade book.
John Mandeville- I leave three more years of Avon to my sister, and my superman comics to Mr. Lyons.
Jen Silvia- To Anthony I leave the best of luck and two more fun-filled years at Avon High.
Shannon Lohnes- I leave Wes 2 more years at AHS and Kristen 7. I leave Mr. Bullock his seat and newspaper. To my sixth grade gym class I leave fond memories. To Mr. F. Lane I leave no more LOHNESES.
Jennifer Barry- I leave to Tiffany Paris my chronic narcolepsy.
Andrea Robillard- I leave Mr. Lyons a new chair. I leave Mr. Ruggles my love & faith.
Pedro Fontes- To Mr. Conti I leave a new jacket. To Mr. Gifford I leave Spellman's basketball team and to Mr. Lyons I leave Macbeth.
Lisa Pierce- I leave Mr. Herl much thanx 4 helping out 4 3 years. I leave Mr. Levine my boxing gloves, no more fights. I leave my brother and my 2 cousins all the luck 2 make it out of here.
April Froio- I leave Reuben Fowler good luck in the future.
Rhonda Robinson- I leave AHS my knowledge that I have received here, and respect goes out to all of the future classes that try their hardest to be optimistic.
Pam Sullivan- To my sister I leave 6 more fun filled years at A.H.S. and to Mike Carey, all the times at Harvard trying to find the Coke machine.
Corinne Sieben- I leave Julie two more years at AMHS, my friends my fondest memories, Mrs. Mahoney all my cried and uncried tears, and Gregory all my love.
Arley Howard- To all the Boston Boys in Avon High I leave my best talents. I leave Mr. Herl my bank account, I leave Juice half of my height, and Puka a new attitude.
Jennifer Burbank- I leave Tiff Paris my Taco Bell wild card.
Chiquita Rice- I leave Mr. Lyons a new polo sweater and a pair of Dockers. and to Mr. Conti a quiet Spanish class.
Courtney Griffin- I leave Lars and Tiff one more year & the best of luck in life.
Sean Kasper- I am leaving the Gazillion sketch books I have completed to Mrs. Mahoney.
Kristen Souza- To Mr. Kellett I leave the best of luck typing out next year's Sports Banquet program. To Mrs. Miller I leave my thanks for all the extra typing opportunities, and to Jaime one more year at Hampton Beach.
Jay Brown- I LEAVE THE PANTHER finished or unfinished.
Chris Markunas- To my brother Dave I leave two more years at AHS.
Mike Armour- I leave Coach Smyth a good soccer team.
Amanda Perkins- To Mr. Lane I leave the JFK tape so he can show other students what really went on.
Andy Pitman- I leave Mr. Lyons, Mr. Gifford, Mr. Julien, Dr. Morss, Mr. Kellett, Mr. Conti, and Mr. Henderson my thanks for being such great teachers.
Allison Lauretto- To Mr. Lyons I leave a book on how to do stretches, to Danielle H. I leave a pocket road map of the world, and to all my friends all our memories.
Chris Carter- I leave Mr. Ruggles a foster car.
Janice Kuzborski- I leave Mr. Lyons and Mr. Giff all my rather blunt comments in Cross Country.
Michelle Keaveney- I leave Mr. Conti a quiet Spanish class. To my parents all my thanks, and to Keith all my love.
Jaime Doherty- I leave all the unpainted lockers to Mr. Levine, a quiet Spanish class to Mr. Conti and a desk for Kristen to jump over.
Aimée Connolly- I leave my deepest respect to Mr. Gifford and Mr. Lyons, and a Snickers to Mr. Conti.
Erin Greeley- To Mr. Ruggles I leave my utmost respect and appreciation and all my Guns n' Roses stuff. To my brother Josh, I leave "the wagon" and to Jerry, all my love.
Tina Millam- I leave a picture of Willie to Mrs. Mahoney.
Christine Cormier- To my brother Stephen I leave my locker and Mr. F. Lane I leave. To Jerry I leave my GN'R stuff.
Danielle Hansen- I leave my coach Shelly a volleyball team that really listens to her, and to Mike, Roger and Anthony 2 more fun-filled years at Avon High.
Daniel Puckett- I leave a half-dozen donuts and a cup of coffee to Mr. Lane.

THE MORSS REVIEW-1994

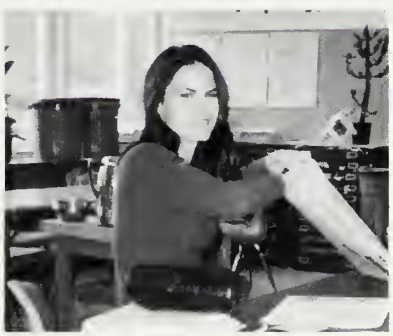

As the holiday time drew near, Scrooge was tired. We had started school before Labor Day-remember? All full of VIGOR, ready to DUQUETTE out with a new year. We'd had a relaxing summer with a nice HERB garden, listened to the Toronto BROWN JAYS play baseball, watched the floods in the Midwest, had stopped by FISCHER'S for Cracker JACK, had watched some movies like Zorba the Greek starring Anthony QUINN and some reruns like Ozzie and HARRIET and LEVINE and Shirley. We'd enjoyed REEDing a novel of Walter SCOTT and Forster's HOWARD'S End, not, as you might think, the story of a sixth grade teacher driven RHONDA bend by her charges. We'd read some poetry of SILVIA Plath, enjoyed every ROSE in the garden, had enjoyed summer band concerts listening to marches of John Phillips SOUZA arranged by Howard HANSEN and conducted by Bill HEALEY.

But now, winter had come. We'd long since secured the HATCH on the boat, put away the COLEMAN lanterns and the GERRY can for the JOHNSON outboard, put ARMOUR-All on the cars, and were back in full session, being chauffeured by Mrs. GRIFFIN and Mrs. GALLAGHER, trying to stay in the LEE of the cold winter wind which kept the driving rain SIEBEN through old windows, and trying to keep scratchy throats away with SMITH Brothers cough drops and coughs themselves with ROBISON cough syrup. The immigrant chimney sweep had come to clean the flues, and though he hadn't got them clean, he still insisted, "NASUTI! NASUTI! Chimney clean!!" And then the holiday time-a beautiful Christmas tree, a Norway BRUCE, the season of CAROLES, a time to BOB apples, everyone out CAROLYN, the season of KASPER, Melchior, and Balthasar, of DONNA and Blitzen. And on the last day before vacation, the fifth and sixth graders had been so mean to poor old Scrooge. He was only trying to PIERCE their feet with his cane, but they tried to trip him and did steal his cane. They had really tried to LYNCH him.

When Scrooge got home that day, he needed a nap; to be FRANK, he was getting old. And before long, he drifted off through the McGRATH and O'BRIEN highways, through the CALLAHAN tunnel, and found him self, by way of the DOMINICan Republic, eventually in St. THOMAS, staying at a classy hotel right on the beach, the Ritz-CARLTON. He knew he'd have to take out LOHNES to pay for it- big BILLS, but so what? It was nice and warm. No need there for LONGVALS or LongJOHNS or whatever they call that stuff. Nobody was KAREN about that. Some famous people were there: JENNINGS, the TV news anchor: BARRY Manilow crooning his famous song "Once in love with AIMEE" and the old Beatles song, "MICHELLE," as well as some MILLS Brother oldies; David RUGGLES, AMANDA watch; CORMIER, the author of teenage novels; and ALLISON LAURETTO, with I GRANT you, an eyecatcher of a guy. RICH, too! And last but by no means least, ANDREA ROBILLARD, the famous tobacco heiress. At this hotel you had your choice of COLFER tennis, with no extra FEE. Lots of SHEPLEY YOUNG females were all over the beach, not even wearing JEANS. But the real action happened at night. The hotel had a dinner theatre show at their night club, and one night the show was called "AVON Calling!" The first act featured COURTNEY GRIFFIN dressed in a white uniform with a chef hat, dancing around doing a take-off of Mrs. ANTON, singing, "I've got a loverly bunch of potato puffs!" No RICE for her!! The second was JANICE KUZBORSKI doing her MARILYN Monroe impersonation after adding a little here and there. Another was an Irish step dancing act featuring JAIME DOHERTY. The real hit of the evening was the renowned tenor, PEDRO FONTES, doused in WILLIAMS After Shave, dressed up like a BUTLER and looking like DAPPER DAN, straight from the downtown BURBANK Opera House, who sang songs from Gilbert and SULLIVAN and then moved the audience to tears with arias from that poignant Italian opera, "Gli Stupidagianni di Aprile," or "The Follies of APRIL." But the performance was interrupted by Chris CARTER, the rich underwear scion, who stumbled onstage wearing BARKER boots, crying, "Where are my little liver pills? Where are little liver pills?" He wasn't far from Scrooge. It was after the cocktail hour and his breath was a little GINNY. "I'm 'ARLEY able to stand up," he muttered. It was COIT funny and it didn't MATTA a lot, but as he was disrupting the act and trying to get the MIKE from Pedro, two huge characters, who were evidently bouncers and looked like CHRIS MARKUNAS and SHAWN the Brawn CHAPLIC, came onstage and FREW him out, literally lifting him off the ground and hustling him out the door and into a waiting LINCOLN that looked pretty decrepit. It needed ERIN its tires, had no CHAPMAN lock, and apparently the PITMAN arm was shot. Hard to keep that car between the painted LANES in the road! The last I heard our crasher had been charged and had had to engage the local firm of attorneys, Grillem, MILLAM, and PUCKETT. Following this interruption came a recitation of the poet laureate, JOHN MANDEVILLE, casually dressed in island attire of khakis, reading his latest oem called "LADYBUG, LADYBUG, Fly away home." The last act was a reprise from Puttin' On The Hits of"You are my Special Angel" by Mrs. MILLER, Mrs. CONRAD, and Mrs. MAHONEY. With this, the resort's pet pig, a outgoing and amiable character called WILBUR, wandered in, snuffling and snorting, and turning his nose in the air, muttered "Oink," his form of SASS. Mr. LYONS, sitting in the audience, reached down and patted him. Suddenly, Scrooge was aware of a persistent ringing. It continued and continued, and St. THOMAS faded into memory as Scrooge awoke to answer a phone call.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Jay Brown- When I did 'noisy' sit-ups in gym class ups, each time I sat up I did it again.

Pam Sullivan- Chris and Jay: remember the swings?

Kristen Souza- When me and Michelle Keaveney dressed up as grapes on Halloween and she made me walk through the mall . . .

Michelle Keaveney- The time I burnt my stomach in Mr. Giff's chemistry class . . .

Sue Jennings- When I got stung by a bee in Spanish class and flipped out.

Pedro Fontes- One day Mr. Henderson pulled me out of my chair and gave me a wedgie.

Arley Howard- My most embarrassing moment in AMHS is when I was running in gym class, and I blacked out while doing a running test and got wiplashed by the stage.

Erin Greeley- Getting dumped by someone I had been going out with for three days because he thought he was "the anti-Christ."

Jen Silvia- When Shawn Chaplic threw up in my hair . . .

Danielle Hansen- During an away volleyball game at OC, I was running to the net and my bra came undone, so my sister asked for a time out and told him something was wrong with my shirt. He told me to fix it. I ran over to the bench to have the team surround me and it took so long the other team called a time out and then Kristy told everyone what had happened.

Allison Lauretto - When I was dared to fit in a locker in 8th grade and the door got stuck when I was in it and it wouldn't open for awhile.

Christine Cormier- When Sean Butler yelled across the gym to let the Soccer, Volleyball, and Cross Country teams that I was "having a little problem" . . .

John Mandeville- In D+D with Erin and Sean . . .

Dan Puckett- When Dooly took a picture of me mooning the camera . . .

Sean Kasper- Being known better as M.C. Search than my own name . . .

Corinne Sieben- falling down Greg's front stairs and hurting my elbow.

Steve Smith- When I forgot the Pledge of Allegiance during the morning announcements.

Andy Pitman- The beginning of my senior year when I couldn't find my study because of an error in my schedule.

Mike Armour- When I missed a wide-open lay-up against Spellman with about 500 people in the gym . . .

Jen Burbank- When I was giving an oral report at Spellman, I had orange lipstick smeared around my mouth & no one told me. Afterwards everyone kept asking me if I had been drinking some orange soda.

Jen Barry- Sophomore year History class, that's all I have to say.

Courtney Griffin- In 8th grade when I fell in front of the coke machine w/ my cheerleading skirt on . . .

Lisa Pierce- When I fought Shante and pulled her weave out . . .

Shannon Lohnes - First day of my freshman year I was trying to get my bag out of the back of the truck and my father took off. I WAS STILL HOLDING ON! and getting the ball in my sixth grade gym class . . .

Amanda Perkins - When I timed the bell from my seat to the door, I would have done it, but I missed the handle and walked into the door.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADING

This year's basketball cheerleading squad has worked extra hard to be the best. We started this season with a new coach and two sets of new uniforms. Our coach Betty has pushed us extra hard so we could be on top. With seven new cheerleaders we have had the best season in years and we hope to win in competition this year. Thank you, Betty, for everything.

REMEMBER WHEN

Courtney- Remember when Barry, Burbie, and I went to Boston in the beginning of junior year . . . when I was getting ready to leave for the prom and my dress ripped.
Chiquita- When I cut my finger in gym freshman year. I wouldn't let anyone look at it because I said it would hurt.
